

Chief Simon Threefingers Leadership Award

The Treaty Six Confederacy Office announced the Chief Simon Threefingers Leadership Award in September 2017. Chief Simon Threefingers held a leadership position with Louis Bull Tribe for many years. Chief Threefingers was instrumental in helping to develop & promote MCC as he held a strong belief in the importance of getting an education. Chief Threefingers dedicated his life to serving his Nation and the larger Maskwacis community. It is on this basis that the Chief Simon Threefingers Leadership Award is established within MCC.

The recipient must

- be an enrolled member of one of the four (4) First Nations of Maskwacis
- be enrolled full-time at MCC & performing well in all classes
- display strong leadership skills & actively supports activities within the college

Eligible students must

- prepare a two (2) page essay describing how they meet the criteria
